

Isaiah's _____ _____ Isaiah 6:1-4
(KJV I saw ALSO the Lord)

The _____ of _____

But notice what Isaiah is saying. In the year of this terrible thing, the year of the death of our King, I saw also THE KING OF HEAVEN.

Faith is Not _____

Two of the spies Joshua and Caleb, men of faith, didn't deny that there were giants in the land. They said, "There are giants in the land flowing with milk and honey and with God on our side we can win!"

Faith is not denial. Faith is seeing the historical reality that we are facing but seeing ALSO the glorious triumph God Almighty! The King is dead, but I see that God is my true King!

What about when we have a crisis in our lives?
These things cause us to name our year.

NEXT STEP: This week I will think about what major life events named a year for me. Such as: "That was the year that _____."

But we stay calm. We walk in peace. Yes, we see it. We realize what's going on.

We say, "Yes, I see this crisis in my life, BUT I see ALSO the Lord and he is high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. And amid my crisis, I'm going to trust him and like the seraphim I going to worship him, crying Holy, holy, holy is the Lord.

NEXT STEP: No matter what has happened in the past, what is happening now, or what will happen in the future- I will memorize, believe, and quote 2 Corinthians 1:10.

"From such terrible dangers of death he saved us, and will save us; and we have placed our hope in him that he will save us again," -2 Corinthians 1:10

Answers: Call – Report / King – Heaven / Denial
